 Survivors can't wait. NY's domestic violence programs are on the brink, struggling to meet the growing need. Since the pandemic, the crisis has only worsened, and now federal funding changes could devastate life-saving services.

 It's time for bold action. We urge the Governor & Legislature to:

- ◆ Invest $200M in sustainable DV services
- ◆ Increase funding for victim assistance
- ◆ Strengthen support for DV advocates & programs

 Survivors & advocates deserve stability. Stand with us on #NYSCADVAdvocacyDay2025 & demand change! #StandingWithAllSurvivors

 The fight for domestic violence funding in NY is happening NOW. Without action, survivors & families will be left without crucial support. We must act.

 On #NYSCADVAdvocacyDay2025, we're calling for:

-  $50M increase for victim assistance
-  $200M to Stabilize DV Services
-  $9.6M for non-residential DV services
-  7.8% increase on all state contracts with DV programs

 Tag your legislators & tell them: Survivors need funding, not empty promises.
